

Emory Writing Center

- Callaway N111 -

SPRING OPENING DATE: January 28, 2020

Overview:

Tutors in the Emory Writing Center are available to support students as they work on papers, discussion posts, websites, and other projects. Writing Center tutors work on idea development, structure, use of sources, grammar, and word choice. They do not proofread for students. Instead, they discuss strategies and resources students can use as they write, revise, and edit their own work.

Who can use the Writing Center?

- All students enrolled in Emory College, the Laney Graduate School, the School of Nursing, and the Medical Imaging Program are welcome in the Emory Writing Center.
- Please visit the Business Writing Center if you need assistance with a Goizueta Business School assignment.

Our tutors can ...

- help with all disciplines and genres, including science writing and applications
- work with writers at all stages of the writing process, from brainstorming to revising
- assist with assignments in multiple languages, including Spanish, French, and German
- assist with presentations, posters, websites, and other multimodal works
- support the literacy needs of English Language Learners; several tutors are ELL Specialists, who have received additional training

How do you find more information or make an appointment with a tutor?

Learn more about us and make an appointment through our website:

<http://www.writingcenter.emory.edu/>. Please review tutoring policies before your visit. A maximum of 2 appointments are allowed each week. Students need to bring hard copies of drafts to their appointments.
