Emory Writing
Center

Who We Serve

The Writing Center serves students in the Emory College of Arts and Sciences (ECAS), Laney Graduate School (LGS), and the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing (SON). We can meet with writers from other schools/divisions only if they are working on assignments for courses in ECAS, LGS, or the SON. Because we have more demand than we are able to meet from students in ECAS, LGS, and the SON (who provide our funding), we are not able to serve students from other schools/divisions.
