Emory Writing
Center

Whom We Serve

The Writing Center serves students in the Emory College of Arts and Sciences (ECAS), Laney Graduate School (LGS), the Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing (SON), and the Emory University Medical Imaging Program (MIP). We can meet with writers from other schools/divisions only if they are working on assignments for courses in ECAS, LGS, the SON, or the MIP. Because we have more demand than we are able to meet from students in ECAS, LGS, the SON, and the MIP (who provide our funding), we are not able to serve students from other schools/divisions.
